A 10-STEP PLAN TO STARTING A BUSINESS IN LOS ALAMITOS

1. Evaluate Your Needs and Determine Your Location

The Community Development Department has information on business incentive programs, starting a business, and Chamber of Commerce information. Working in cooperation with the private real estate community, the City also assists businesses wishing to locate or expand by identifying possible locations and offering incentives.

2. Zoning Code and Allowable Uses

The City has established zoning ordinances for both home-based businesses and commercial addresses. It is important to compare your proposed use to the list of allowable uses before signing a lease.

3. Fictitious Business Name

If you intend to name your firm anything other than your own name a fictitious business name, also called a dba (Doing Business As), is required. To File a Fictitious Business Name contact the Orange County Clerk Recorder, at (714) 834-2500, or visit www.ocgov.com

4. Obtain a Business License

Chapter 5.04 of the Los Alamitos Municipal code requires that a Business License Tax be paid before any business, trade, profession or occupation is conducted within the City. A Business Tax payment is required even for businesses based outside of the City (or which have paid business taxes to another City) if you are conducting business or advertising in the City. To apply for a business license please contact the Business Support Center at (562) 222-8742, or visit the following website: www.LosAlamitosBusinessTax.com

5. Obtain Important State Permits

The Community Development Department can help you determine what other permits or licenses you may need. Contact information for commonly used offices is located below:
